LENT 2020.

The PCC have agreed to follow the Archbishops' theme of LIVE LENT, Care for God's Creation. There are small booklets for adults with a reflection for each of the 40 days of Lent and a small booklet for families, these are a few still available at the back of church.

The Annual Meetings will take place in All Saints on Sunday 29 March at 11am.

The first meeting is to elect 2 churchwardens for the coming year, the second meeting elects 2 Deanery Synod reps, and 4 PCC members. If you are interested in standing for any of the above roles you MUST complete a nomination form signed by yourself and a proposer and seconder prior to the meetings. I will need to check with each nominee that they have not been disqualified from being a charity trustee.

Forms available from Anne or Caroline, please return to Angela or Caroline.

Revision of the Church Electoral Roll.

If you would worship with us regularly and would like to join the Church Electoral Roll (church membership list), there are forms at the back of church, please complete and hand to Phyllis by 14 March.

Mona Glanville:

There will be a memorial service for Mona on Wednesday 22nd April at 11am in All Saints' Church.

Spring/Easter edition of the Parish Newsletter

We will be putting together a new edition very soon.

If you would like to submit something please do so by the END of TODAY to either emh.fawley@gmail.com or vicar@fawleychurch.org.uk
